EAST BARRE.

The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church will hold an ice cream social Tuesday evening on Alden Green's lawn.

NORTHFIELD.

Hon. Frank Plimley and daughter, Mrs. Flint, left on Saturday for a short stay at Mr. Plimley's camp at North Hero.

Mrs. Harry Kendall and children have gone to Brantree and Granville for a few weeks' visit with relatives.

J. M. Bullock, who has been spending a week at his home, left this morning for Sheldon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ball were called to Washington, D. C., very suddenly on Friday. They have been stopping at the Northfield House. Mr. Ball is the inspector of the granite cut at the E. B. Ellis granite sheds for the depot building in Washington.

Chas. A. Milliken of Augusta, Me., vice-president of the Vermont Black State Co., and G. A. Towle of Lowell, Mass., secretary of the company, are in town for a few days looking after the interests of the company.

Claude L. Morse was suddenly called to Newburyport, Mass., on Friday by the death of a relative.

Chas. A. Smith of Barre was a business visitor in town on Saturday.

Harold Converse of Bridgeport, Conn., arrived in town on Saturday morning for his summer vacation. Mr. Converse was a former Northfield boy and is now superintendent of the educational department of the Y. M. C. A. of Bridgeport. He made the greater part of the distance from Bridgeport to Northfield on foot.

Edward Kelly, who was so seriously injured on the evening of July 3 by the explosion of a large firecracker in his hand, has been taken to a hospital in Montreal for treatment. He received a deep, ragged cut in the hand and about the right eye which it is feared will effect the sight of the eye if not the loss of sight.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dutton took a carriage drive to Montpelier on Saturday, accompanied by Mrs. G. R. Aldrich.

A squad of base ball players from Barre arrived in town on the noon train on Saturday, unexpectedly it is said, to play a game of ball with the Northfield town team. After about an hour a team was picked up and went to the campus at the university grounds, and seven innings were played. The score resulted in a victory for the visitors, 5 to 3.

Arthur Tilden of Barre was the guest of his father, William Tilden, on Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Phil Howes and son, Harold, of Montpelier were in town on Friday and Saturday visiting relatives.

Mrs. Ann Plimley, 88 years old, of Montpelier, visited her sister, Mrs. Cora Miller, 85 years old, at the home of H. G. Cady, their grand nephew, on Saturday. This is the first time in many years that the sisters have seen each other. Mrs. Plimley was accompanied by Mrs. M. E. Smilie and her grandson, Earl Smilie.

The financial year at the Northfield Savings Bank which has just closed, shows that the bank has paid to the depositors over $5,000 more in dividends during the past year, than in any previous year in its history, and still maintain their surplus of ten per cent which will enable them to pay at the rate of 4 per cent during the coming year under the ordinary circumstances.

Rev. Walter Dole, pastor of the Universalist church and Rev. James B. Sargent, pastor of the Congregational, exchanged pulpits yesterday morning.

The Knights of St. Paul, an organization made up from the boys of the Methodist Sunday school classes, expect to start on a march the first of next week to be gone a week. They have a military organization and drill on the church grounds and in the streets most every evening preparing for the march. While gone they will be under the guidance of the pastor, Rev. E. W. Sharpe.

Arabian Coffee Shops.
In Arabia the higher classes use sugar in tea and coffee in their homes, but in the coffee shops in the bazar, where hundreds of people gather in the evening to talk and drink coffee, a cheaper grade of coffee is generally consumed, made of coffee husks principally, and in this drink sugar is seldom used.

An Iceland Drama.
A young lady in Iceland has completed a four act melodrama script. "Trifling with Fate" is the title.

THE CITY BAKERY

Owing to the great demand for our Bakery Goods we have been obliged to add two more bakers from Boston, Mr. John Smeaton, a crackerjack bread-baker, and Mr. George Anthers, one that cannot be beaten in fancy Bakery Goods. They are the only Union bakers in Barre.

BEMIS & CARON,

66 North Main Street, Tel. 12-11. Barre, Vermont.

INDEPENDENT VOTERS

Republicans, Democrats—in fact everybody—are talking politics now. It is going to be a HOT TIME. The best place to cool off is at our SODA FOUNTAIN. Ice cold and the best possible. Come here for cool Summer drinks.

D. F. DAVIS, "The Druggist,"

262 North Main St., Barre, Vermont.

THE HALL OF FAME.

Former Foreign Minister Theophile Delcasse of France will pay a visit to the United States in December.

President Roosevelt has announced his intention of not again writing for magazines during his incumbency of his present office.

James E. Scripps, publisher of the Detroit News, who died recently, left $50,000 of his fortune to be used for the improvement and beautifying of the city of Detroit.

Sir Charles Dilke, who in former years was such a notable figure in the public life of Great Britain, is often asked to contribute articles on current politics, but consistently refuses.

Deacon Benjamin Brown of Brooklyn, Conn., is ninety-nine years old. Deacon Brown, who claims the distinction of being the oldest living ex-legislator in Connecticut, was born in Brooklyn, May 25, 1807.

Professor Henry W. Hurlbert of the chair of church history of the Bangor Theological seminary will go to Russia to engage in work in the missionary field, and Rev. Calvin M. Carl of Haverhill, Mass., has been elected in his stead.

Charles Haynes Haswell, probably the oldest living engineer and author, has just celebrated his ninety-seventh birthday. His "Mechanics and Engineers' Pocketbook," which he brings up to date each year, was first published in 1842.

Dr. W. C. Farrabee of the anthropological department of Harvard university, with three students, will conduct an expedition about the head waters of the Amazon. The party will be gone three years. A base will be established at Arequipa, Peru.

Several prominent couples have recently celebrated their silver weddings. Among those who celebrated were Ambassador and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, Dr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Greenville Kane, Mr. and Mrs. William Kent and Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Miller.

Luther Burbank of Santa Rosa, Cal., who runs an experimental farm, has planted 10,000 varieties of potatoes this season. He intends to revolutionize the potato growing of the country by selecting the best specimen and growing that entirely to the exclusion of the other kinds.

Commissioner James R. Garfield of the bureau of corporations is passionately fond of tennis and frequently joins in baseball games with his children. Both Mr. and Mrs. Garfield devote a great deal of attention to the athletic training of their children and enter with them into all their outdoor sports.

ANIMAL ODDITIES.

The normal life of a mouse is three years.

Birds never eat spiders and really try to shun their vicinity.

Wild birds do not sing more than eight or ten weeks in the year.

Giraffes and ant eaters each have tongues nearly two feet in length.

There are 240,000 different species of insects on earth. Some of these are so small that 4,000 of them are only equal to a grain of sand.

The cuckoo does not build a nest, but deposits its solitary egg in the nest of another bird. The intruder is always cared for by the deluded hosts.

Patagonian llamas live for years without tasting water, and a breed of cows near Losert, France, and noted for the richness of the milk, takes it very rarely.

TALES OF CITIES.

New York's estimated population Jan. 1, 1906, was 4,614,340.

Cincinnati, through the civic improvement department of her Woman's club, started the first playground in Ohio.

The men's clubs of twenty-five churches of many denominations in Minneapolis are to federate for civic betterment.

The death rate of Waterbury, Conn., is reported as 17 per 1,000—less than the rate either in the state, in the large towns or in the small towns.

The town of Bowdoinham, Me., is the only one in New England which has five tide rivers within its boundaries. They are the Catchance, Abbagadasset, Kennebec, Androscoggin and Muddy rivers.

Ink Stained Fingers.

A simple way of removing ink stains from the fingers is to rub vasoline will into the skin at the stained parts and then rub off with a piece of soft paper before applying soap. In this way the hands may be washed perfectly clean.
